LIVELY FOX CHASE.

A BIG HUNT YESTERDAY IN OLD HANOVER.

Many Men and Dogs in It-A Fine Dinner Served-Charged with Arson - Amicably Settled - Politics

ASHLAND, VA., February 18 .- (Speclal.)-The fox hunt at Independence Church to-day brought together the largest crowd seen in that section for many years. Between 125 and 150 riders and 120 dogs took part in the three chases. One red and two gray foxes were caught. Between the hunts a splendid dinner was served by the ladies of the church. Hanover, King William, Chesterfield, Louisa, Goochland, and Caroline counties all had representatives in the hunt. Mr. E. P. Winston, the veteran fox hunter of Hanover, was in charge of the hounds, and had as his assistants A. W. Brock and Brodie Blunt, Mr. W. W. Mitchell, a young artist of this place, was on hand and made several snap shots of the dogs and Deputy-Sheriff J. W. Priddy left here this afternoon for Staples with a young white boy, John Raymond Gordon, who is charged with burning the residence of Mr. Tom Priddy last Monday morning at 2 o'clock. The boy came from the Cleveland (O.) Orphan Asylum, and was Cleveland (O.) Orphan Asylum, and was bound to Dr. Brackett, who lives near Negrofoot, and who is the father-in-law of Mr. Priddy. He has lived with the Treasurer of the county, and the groom of Mr. Priddy. He has lived with the family about seven years, and lately Mr. Priddy rented a home from Mr. Peter Copeland, near Staples, in Henrico county. When he moved he took the boy with him, and during the absence of Mr. Priddy last Sunday the boy was left in charge of the place. He is quite bright looking, and about 15 years old, but not large for his age. He has told but not large for his age. He has told four different stories about the burning, and insists he was in the house asleep when the fire started, and was awakened by the dogs barking. He has ran away when the fire started, and was awakened by the dogs barking. He has run away everal times from Dr. Brackett's home during the past few years. He was captured by Sheriff Priday last night near Newtofoot and will be turned over to Negrofoot and will be turned over to Constable Mosby, of Henrico, for safekeeping.

Harris, Miss Dora H. Crismond and Dr. Roderick Dew, Miss Ellen M. Burke and Mr. R. H. Crismond, Miss Minnie Bell and Mr. C. J. Jones, Miss E. Maude Massey and Mr. C. W. Colbert.

Following the bridesmaids came the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Annie Stuart Bullock, and after the groomsmen came the groom, with his brother and best man, Mr. J. Wallace Massey. The attendants, as they reached the altar, crossed in front of it, lining up on opposite sides. If y gratified at the result,

Colonel Richard Irby is in receipt of a letter from Hon. John Lamb, congress-man-elect from this district, in which he says he will with much pleasure make an address before W. B. Newton Camp, Confederate Veterans, of this place, on Monday next, February 22d. The meeting will be held in the Masonic Hall at 2 o'clock P. M. County politics are getting quite warm. At the court-house yesterday several aspirants for Supervisor were on hand shaking hands with the sovereigns. Economy in county affairs will be the ticket the new men will work on. They propose a cut in expenses, which will no doubt catch our people, who are now quite heavily taxed.

THE EASTERN SHORE.

A Token of Appreciation-An Encouraging Report.

ONANCOCK, VA., February 18 .- (Special.)-Mr. R. H. superintendent of the New York, Philadeiphia and Norfolk railroad, who resides at Cape Charles, was agreeably surprised several days ago, when, on re-turning to his home, he found in his library a magnificent mahogany bookcase and chair, presented to him by the business-men of Cape Charles, who took this means of showing their appreciation of his many acts of kindness and his interest in the prosperity and general welfare of the community in which he resides. Superintendent Nicholas has been a resi dent of the town only about one but he has thoroughly identified himself with the people, and deservedly won good will and esteem. John Daniel, Esq., wrote Superintendent Nich-olas a graceful letter of presentation, and the Superintendent has written an equally gracefully letter of acceptation. Mr. Mack Disharom, of Cape Charles, left that town several days ago for Middlebrook, Augusta county, Va., where on yesterday he wed Miss Clara Jacob, of orthampton county, who has been visitmg friends in Augusta.

place yesterday afternoon at their resi-dence. During the affair young Johnson's throat was siashed by his father. The af-fair created much excitement owing to the prominence of the parties. The young man was arrested, charged with a breach of the peace, and spent the night in the station-house. The case was called in the Police Court to-day, when the elder Johnson testified that he had implored his knowledged that he cut his son with the Bell for the murder of his wife was knife, and expressed sorrow that he did in the testimony of the prisoner. He not kill him. Mr Johnson, Sr., said his son assaulted his mother a few days ago and created much unhappiness in the When the prisoner was put on the stand he flatly denied the charges, in absence of material witnesses, the case was postponed five days, and young was held in $500 bail, which he could not furnish, and went to jail. The case will be heard in private.
